

Harlem Renaissance Library

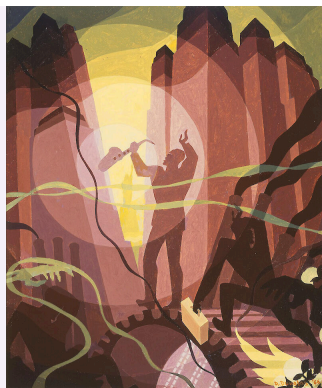

Grades 1–2 • Activity Card

Yellow Level

Name: _____ Class: _____

During the Harlem Renaissance (1920s–1930s), Black artists, poets, and musicians in Harlem, New York created a cultural explosion. Many had moved north from the South during the Great Migration. When they found each other in Harlem, something extraordinary happened.

ACTIVITY 1: ANALYSE THE ART

Aaron Douglas — Song of the Towers, 1934

1. What three things do you notice first?

2. The figures have no faces. Why do you think Douglas made that choice?

ACTIVITY 2: WRITE A POEM

Write a 4-line poem about Harlem or jazz. Each line starts with a different sense word: I see... I hear... I feel... I know...

minimuseumproject.com/exhibitions/harlem-renaissance