

Harlem Renaissance Library

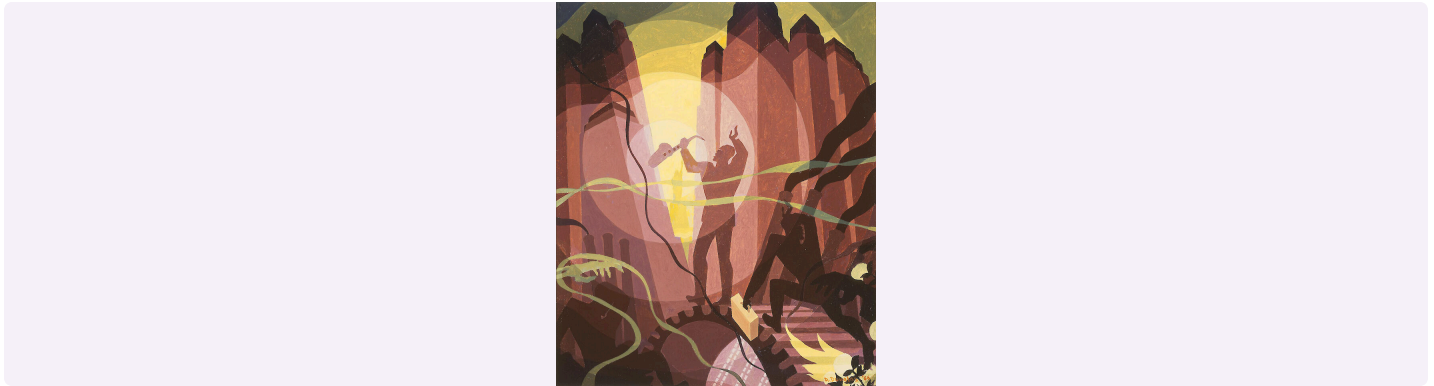

PreK–K • Activity Card

Everybody Does This!

Name: _____ July 17 _____

Aaron Douglas was a painter who lived in Harlem, New York in the 1920s. He painted people as silhouettes — dark shadow-shapes — with colourful backgrounds. He said the shadow people could be anyone. They could be you.

LOOK AT THE PAINTING

Aaron Douglas — Song of the Towers, 1934

Point to: A silhouette person ☐ A circle shape ☐ Something that looks like music ☐

YOUR TURN: DRAW A SILHOUETTE!

Draw a silhouette person doing something you love. Colour the background in your favourite colour.

Draw your silhouette here — dark person, colourful background!