Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Context: The Harlem Renaissance (c.1920–1935) was an extraordinary flowering of Black music, literature, and art in Harlem, New York. It grew from the Great Migration — when over one million Black Americans moved north to escape Jim Crow laws and find better lives. The artists, musicians, and writers who gathered in Harlem changed American culture forever.

ACTIVITY 1: LITERARY TERMS WARM-UP

Tools of the Writer

Match each literary term to its definition:

Term	Definition
Imagery	A — words that imitate sounds (buzz, crash, whisper)
Metaphor	B — language that appeals to the senses (sight, sound, touch)
Onomatopoeia	C — saying one thing IS another (life is a jazz song)
Repetition	D — repeating words or phrases for emphasis or rhythm

ACTIVITY 2: HARLEM IN WORDS WORKSHOP

Write Your Own Poem

Using the Harlem in Words word bank (in the exhibition), choose 6–8 words from at least 3 different categories and arrange them into a short poem. Your poem does not need to rhyme. Focus on image and feeling.
