Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Context: The Harlem Renaissance (c.1920–1935) produced extraordinary work across every art form. It grew from the Great Migration and created a permanent shift in American culture — its influence is still felt in music, visual art, literature, and civil rights today.

ACTIVITY 1: PRIMARY SOURCE ANALYSIS — SOAPS METHOD

Reading History Through Documents

Choose one primary source from the exhibition (a letter, photograph caption, or map annotation). Apply the SOAPS method:

Element	What I found / my analysis
S — Speaker Who created this?
O — Occasion When and why?
A — Audience Who was it for?
P — Purpose What was it trying to do?
S — Subject What is it about?

As historical evidence, this source is valuable because:
