

LIBRARY ACTIVITY CARD

Harlem Renaissance Library

Grades 1–2 · Green Level

GREEN LEVEL
MORE SUPPORT

ADMIT ONE

NAME _____ DATE _____ CLASS _____

The Harlem Renaissance was a time in the 1920s when lots of Black artists, musicians, and writers all lived in Harlem, New York and created amazing things together. Aaron Douglas painted bold, beautiful pictures. Langston Hughes wrote poems. Duke Ellington made jazz music.

01 PART 1 Match it

| PERSON | WHAT THEY MADE |
|---|---|
| Aaron Douglas ● | ● jazz music |
| Langston Hughes ● | ● poems |
| Duke Ellington ● | ● paintings |

02 PART 2 Look and write

LOOK FOR IT ON THE LIBRARY DISPLAY

Aaron Douglas — Song of the Towers, 1934

I can see: _____

It makes me feel: _____

03 PART 3 Your poem

Fill in:

Harlem sounds like _____

Harlem looks like _____

Harlem feels like _____

MINI MUSEUM Visit: minimuseumproject.org/exhibitions/harlem-renaissance