

project.org

LIBRARY ACTIVITY CARD

Harlem Renaissance Library

Grades 1–2 · Yellow Level

YELLOW LEVEL
GRADE LEVEL

ADMIT ONE

NAME _____ DATE _____ CLASS _____

During the Harlem Renaissance (1920s–1930s), Black artists, poets, and musicians in Harlem, New York created a cultural explosion. Many had moved north from the South during the Great Migration. When they found each other in Harlem, something extraordinary happened.

01 PART 1 Analyze the art

LOOK FOR IT ON THE LIBRARY DISPLAY

Aaron Douglas — Song of the Towers, 1934

1. What three things do you notice first?

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____

2. The figures have no faces. Why do you think Douglas made that choice?

_____

_____

02 PART 2 Write a poem

Write a 4-line poem about Harlem or jazz. Each line starts with a different sense word: I see… I hear… I feel… I know…

I see… _____

I hear… _____

I feel… _____

I know… _____

MINI MUSEUM Visit: minimuseumproject.org/exhibitions/harlem-renaissance