

LIBRARY ACTIVITY CARD

Harlem Renaissance Library

Grades 3–5 · Green Level

GREEN LEVEL
MORE SUPPORT

ADMIT ONE

NAME _____ DATE _____ CLASS _____

The Harlem Renaissance (1920s–1930s) was a cultural explosion in Harlem, New York. Millions of Black Americans had moved north from the South (the Great Migration). When they arrived in Harlem, artists, musicians, and writers found each other — and created some of the most powerful art, music, and writing in American history.

01 PART 1 — Key people

Use the library books or your knowledge to complete this chart:

PERSON	WHAT THEY CREATED	ONE INTERESTING FACT
Langston Hughes
Aaron Douglas
Duke Ellington
Zora Neale Hurston

02 PART 2 — The painting

LOOK FOR IT ON THE LIBRARY DISPLAY

Aaron Douglas — Song of the Towers, 1934

Three things I observe:

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____

What I think this painting is about:

_____

_____

MINI MUSEUM Visit: minimuseumproject.org/exhibitions/harlem-renaissance