project.org

LIBRARY ACTIVITY CARD

Harlem Renaissance Library

PreK–K · Everybody Does This!

GREEN LEVEL
MORE SUPPORT

ADMIT ONE

NAME _____ DATE _____ CLASS _____

Aaron Douglas was a painter who lived in Harlem, New York in the 1920s. He painted people as silhouettes — dark shadow-shapes — with colorful backgrounds. He said the shadow people could be anyone. They could be you.

01 PART 1 — Look at the painting

LOOK FOR IT ON THE LIBRARY DISPLAY

Aaron Douglas — Song of the Towers, 1934

Point to: A silhouette person ☐ A circle shape ☐

Something that looks like music ☐

02 PART 2 — Your turn: draw a silhouette!

Draw a silhouette person doing something you love. Color the background in your favorite color.

DRAW YOUR SILHOUETTE HERE — DARK PERSON, COLORFUL BACKGROUND!

MINI MUSEUM Visit: minimuseumproject.org/exhibitions/harlem-renaissance